

11th ANNUAL JAIN STUDIES PROGRAM IN INDIA

SUMMER 2015

June 4 - June 30

4 Week Program in Delhi, Jaipur & Aligarh

Open to Undergraduate and Graduate students in related fields of study
3 Credit Units Available

Join the International School for Jain Studies (ISJS) in India for an annual summer program that will focus on the religious and cultural tradition of Jainism

Jainism is a religious tradition with principle teachings based on non-violence, non-possession, self control, and strenuous effort in pursuit of spiritual goals

PROGRAM INCLUDES

- Lectures by area specialists/scholars
- Interaction with Jain monks and nuns
- Site visits and field trips
- Immersion into Jain philosophy and culture in India

PROGRAM FEE

$650 USD

- *Fee includes: lodging, meals and program related inland travel (bus & train)
- *Airfare, visa and insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 1, 2015

FOR PROGRAM DETAILS & APPLICATION, PLEASE VISIT:

www.isjs.in

ISJS - Head Office
D-28, Panchsheel Enclave, New Delhi, India
Dr. Shugan Jain - shuganjain1941@gmail.com

ISJS - Admissions Office
Sushil Jana - admissions@isjs.in Questions? Contact:

Carly Gaffey
cgaffey@lion.lmu.edu / 1.603.300.6989

Loyola Marymount University - Yoga Studies
3700 UHALL, 1 LMU Drive, Los Angeles CA, 90045